A Mexican man becomes an instant millionaire after winning the lottery.

With his newfound wealth, he decides on exactly what he will buy. He buys a 20 acre plot of land in Mexico and hires an architect.

"I want mi casa to be built right there, with big columns in front, and a marble foyer, and at the end of the hall I want a halo statue." The architect, excited about making mega bucks off this man, jots down exactly what the Mexican wants, "I'll do it sir, I'll make this a fine house for you!"

All the plans are made and the architect starts construction. He searches six different countries to find exquisite columns for the front of the house and has marble shipped in from France to line the foyer.

The only problem he has is that he cannot locate a halo statue. Knowing that religious symbols are important to many Mexicans, he continues to search high and low for month after month. The house is finally complete, but alas, the architect was never able to locate a halo statue.

Swallowing his pride for not being able to complete the order, he takes the Mexican to see his new home.

"Si Señor!" exclaims the Mexican. "You got da columns in front of mi casa!" The architect smiles. They enter the house and the Mexican notices the marble floor.

"Wonderful! I love mi new marble floor Señor!" states the Mexican as he wanders down the hall. He reaches the end of the hall and looks puzzled.

"Señor? Where is my halo statue?" asks the Mexican.

"Well, sir, I'm afraid to have to tell you this, but I searched high and low and just could not for the life of me figure out what a halo statue is, much less find one for you anywhere," says the architect, hanging his head in shame.

"What? You don't know what a halo statue is?"

"No, sir, I'm sorry, I do not know," replies the architect.

"You know," says the Mexican, "it's that thing that goes 'ringy dingy' and you pick it up and say, 'halo? statue?'"

The Mermaid!

There were three men fishing in a boat.
One felt a tug and reeled in his line. He had caught a beautiful mermaid.
She squirmed and struggled and tried to break free but he wouldn't let her go.

Finally she said "I'll give you anything you can wish for if you'll let me go."
"Okay," said the man, "I want my IQ doubled."
So she did and he goes off on Shakespeare and all kinds of complicated things.

The mermaid goes to leave and the second man grabs her.
"Hey, I'm not going to let you go until I get a wish too."
"Fine," she said, "What do you want?" "I want my IQ tripled."
So she triples his IQ and he goes off solving all these problems and mathematical equations.

"I suppose you want a wish too?" the mermaid said to the last man.

"You bet I do, I want my IQ timed by 10!"

"Ummm I don't think you do," said the mermaid.

"It'll change your whole aspect on life."

And although she tried to talk him out of it, that's what he wanted.

So she gave him his wish and POOF He turned into a woman.

I had eighteen bottles of whiskey in my cellar and was told by my wife to empty the contents of each and every bottle down the sink, or else...I said I would and proceeded with the unpleasant task.

I withdrew the cork from the first bottle and poured the contents down the sink with the exception of one glass, which I drank. I then withdrew the cork from the second bottle and did likewise with it, with the exception of one glass, which I drank. I then withdrew the cork from the third bottle and poured the whiskey down the sink which I drank. I pulled the cork from the fourth bottle down the sink and poured the bottle down the glass, which I drank. I pulled the bottle from the cork of the next and drank one sink out of it, and threw the rest down the glass. I pulled the sink out of the next glass and poured the cork down the bottle. Then I corked the sink with the glass, bottled the drink, and drank the pour.

When I had everything emptied, I steadied the house with one hand, counted the glasses, corks, bottles, and sinks with the other, which were twenty-nine, and as the houses came by, I counted them again, and finally I had all the houses in one bottle, which I drank. I'm not under the affluence of incolhol as some tinkle peep I am. I'm not half as thunk as you might drink. I foos so feelish I don't know who is me, and the drunker I stand here, the longer I get.

asdfOnce upon a time, there lived a man who had a terrible passion for baked beans. He loved them, but they always had an embarrassing and somewhat lively reaction on him. One day he met a girl and fell in love. When it was apparent that they would marry, he thought to himself "She'll never go for me carrying on like that," so he made the supreme sacrifice and gave up his beloved baked beans, and shortly after, that they got married.

It was his birthday a few months later and, on the way home from work, his car broke down.

Since they lived in the country, the man called his wife and told her he would be late because he had to walk.

On his way home, he passed a small cafe and the wonderful aroma of baked beans overwhelmed him. Since he still had several miles to walk, he figured he could walk off any ill effects before he got home. So he went in and ordered, and before leaving had three extra large helpings of baked beans. All the way home he 'putt-putted'. He 'putted' down one hill and 'putt-putted' up the next.

By the time he arrived home he felt reasonably safe. His wife met him at the door and seemed somewhat excited.

She exclaimed, "Darling, I have the most wonderful surprise for you for dinner tonight!" She put a blindfold on him, and led him to his chair at the head of the table and made him promise not to peek.

At this point he was beginning to feel another one coming on. Just as she was about to remove the blindfold, the telephone rang. She again made him promise not to peek until she returned, and she went to answer the phone. While she was gone, he seized the opportunity. He shifted his weight to one leg and let go. It was not only loud, but ripe as a rotten egg. He had a hard time breathing, so he felt for his napkin and fanned the air about him. He had just started to feel better, when another urge came on. He raised his leg and 'rrriiiipppp!' It sounded like a diesel engine revving, and smelled worse. To keep from gagging, he tried fanning his arms awhile, hoping the smell would dissipate. Things had just about returned to normal when he felt another urge coming. He shifted his weight to his other leg and let go. This was a real blue-ribbon winner; the windows rattled, the dishes on the table shook and, a minute later, the flowers on the table were dead. While keeping an ear tuned in on the conversation in the hallway, and keeping his promise of staying blindfolded, he carried on like this for the next ten minutes, farting and fanning them each time with his napkin. When he heard his wife saying goodbye (indicating the end of his loneliness, and freedom) he neatly laid his napkin on his lap and folded his hands on top of it. Smiling contentedly, he was the picture of innocence when his wife walked in. Apologizing for taking so long, she asked if he had peeked at the dinner. After assuring her he had not, she removed the blindfold and yelled,

"Surprise!!!"

To his shock and horror, there were twelve dinner guests seated around the table for his surprise birthday party.

Some Say...

Some say love, it is a river
That drowns the tender reed
Some say love, it is a razor
That leaves your soul to bleed

Some say love, it is a hunger
An endless aching need
I say love, it is a flower
And you its only seed

It's the soul afraid of dreaming,
That never learns to dance
And the soul afraid of waking,
That never takes the chance

It's the one, who won't be taken
Who cannot seem to give
And the soul afraid of dying,
That never learns to live

When the night has been too lonely
And the road has been too long
When you feel that love is only

For the lucky and the strong

Just remember in the winter
Far beneath the bitter snow
Lies the seed that with the sun's love
In the spring becomes the rose

Smiling is infectious; you catch it like the flu,
When someone smiled at me today I started smiling too.

I passed around the corner and someone saw my grin,
When he smiled I realized I'd passed it on to him.

I thought about that smile, and realized its worth:
A single smile, just like mine, could travel round
the Earth.

So if you feel a smile begin, don't leave it undetected...

Let's start an epidemic quick and get the world
infected!!

A minister passing through his church

in the middle of the day,

Decided to pause by the altar and see who had come to pray.

Just then the back door opened,

a man came down the aisle,

The minister frowned as he saw the man hadn't shaved in a while.

His shirt was shabby, old and his coat was worn and frayed,

the man knelt, he bowed his head,

then rose and walked away.

In the days that followed,

each noon time came this chap,

each time he knelt just for a moment,
a lunch pail in his lap.

Well, the minister's suspicions grew,
with robbery a main fear,
He decided to stop the man and ask him,
"What are you doing here?"

The old man said he worked down the road.

Lunch was half an hour.
Lunchtime was his prayer time,
for finding strength and power.

"I stay only moments, see,
because the factory is so far away;
as I kneel here talking to the Lord,
this is what I say:

"I JUST CAME AGAIN TO TELL YOU, LORD,
HOW HAPPY I'VE BEEN,
SINCE WE FOUND EACH OTHER'S FRIENDSHIP
AND YOU TOOK AWAY MY SIN.
DON'T KNOW MUCH OF HOW TO PRAY, BUT I

THINK ABOUT YOU EVERYDAY.
SO, JESUS, THIS IS JIM CHECKING IN TODAY."

The minister feeling foolish, told Jim, that was fine.
He told the man he was welcome to come and pray just anytime.

Time to go, Jim smiled, and said
"Thanks." He sped to the door.
The minister knelt at the altar,
he'd never done it before.

His cold heart melted, warmed with love,
and met with Jesus there.
As the tears flowed, in his heart,
he repeated old Jim's prayer:

HOW HAPPY I'VE BEEN,
SINCE WE FOUND EACH OTHER'S FRIENDSHIP
AND YOU TOOK AWAY MY SIN.
I DON'T KNOW MUCH OF HOW TO PRAY, BUT I
THINK ABOUT YOU EVERYDAY.

SO, JESUS, THIS IS ME CHECKING IN TODAY."

Past noon one day, the minister noticed that old Jim hadn't come.

As more days passed without Jim,
he began to worry some.

At the factory, he asked about him,
learning he was ill.

The hospital staff was worried,
but he'd given them a thrill.

The week that Jim was with them,
brought changes in the ward.

His smiles, a joy contagious.
Changed people, were his reward.

The head nurse couldn't understand why Jim was so glad,
when no flowers, calls or cards came,
not a visitor he had.

The minister stayed by his bed,

he voiced the nurse's concern:
No friends came to show they cared.
He had nowhere to turn.

Looking surprised, old Jim spoke up and with a winsome smile;
"The nurse is wrong, she couldn't know,
that in here all the while everyday at noon He's here,
a dear friend of mine, you see,
He sits right down, takes my hand,
leans over and says to me:

"I JUST CAME AGAIN TO TELL YOU, JIM,
HOW HAPPY I HAVE BEEN,
SINCE WE FOUND THIS FRIENDSHIP,
AND I TOOK AWAY YOUR SIN.
ALWAYS LOVE TO HEAR YOU PRAY,
I THINK ABOUT YOU EACH DAY,
AND SO JIM, THIS IS JESUS
CHECKING IN TODAY."

If this blesses you, pass it on... Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart.

My Wish For You

I wish....

You happiness on a cloudy day.

Blue skies to chase your cares away.

A breath of fresh air when you are feeling down.

Anything to get rid of that frown.

A sprinkle of rain,

And a life free of pain.

I wish you warmth from the rays of the sun

And a lifetime of joy and fun.

Just keep your eyes to the sky.

And know I am always nearby.

Did you know...?

- According to the American Cancer Society, 54% of all American women with cancer either work from home or stay home with their kids...

Did you also know...?

What You Don't Know...CAN Hurt You and Those You Love!

Seventy thousand (70,000) new chemicals have been introduced since WWII. Today, thousands of chemicals are appearing innocuously on the shelves of your grocery store. Merely because they are on the grocery store shelves, you assume these products are safe for you and your family, but not so.

What do we do with these products? We disinfect our baby's room with them. We smear them on our faces. We wash our clothes and linens in them, so we wear them all day and sleep on them all night. We wash our dishes in them, and we brush our teeth with them. They are a part of our lives. We don't question their safety. We grew up buying them from the grocery store. We trust that they are safe.

They wouldn't allow stores to sell products that aren't safe would they???? Think again.

According to the U.S. National Research Council, no information of toxic effects is available for more than 48,500 synthetic chemicals listed by the Environmental Protection Agency. Less than 1% of these chemicals have been tested for chronic, reproductive, or mutagenic effects.

So what did we do? Switched stores!

We paid a nominal membership fee to gain the convenience of buying safe, nontoxic products directly from the manufacturer at wholesale prices. Through a full-service catalog shopping system, our regularly purchased household and nutritional items are delivered directly to our front door. We can choose from over 300 products that are safe, non-toxic replacements for the retail poison routinely sold in stores.

We use a catalog and a toll-free number or our website to conveniently place orders for quality products. Our product line includes: vitamin and mineral supplements; pharmaceuticals; dental care, pet care, and hair care products; weight loss; make-up, skin care and home cleaning products.

So, who are Moms For Life?

We're a group of mothers who all want the same thing...

When the daylight's gone and you're on your own
And you need a friend, just to be around
I will comfort you, I will take your hand,
I will pull you through, I will understand,
And you know that

I'll be at your side,
There's no need to worry,
Together we'll survive,
Through the haste and hurry,

I'll be at your side, if you feel like you're alone,
And you have nowhere to turn, I'll be at your side,
If life's standing still, and your souls confused,
And you cannot find what road to choose,
If you make mistakes you can't let me down,
I will still believe, I won't turn around,

I'll be at your side,
There's no need to worry,
Together we'll survive,
Through the haste and hurry,

I ran into a stranger as he passed by,
 "Oh excuse me please" was my reply.
 He said, "Please excuse me too;
 I wasn't watching for you."
 We were very polite, this stranger and I.
 We went on our way saying good-bye.
 But at home a difference is told,
 how we treat our loved ones, young and old.
 Later that day, cooking the evening meal,
 My son stood beside me very still.
 As I turned, I nearly knocked him down.
 "Move out of the way," I said with a frown.
 He walked away, his little heart broken.
 I didn't realize how harshly I'd spoken.
 While I lay awake in bed,
 God's still small voice came to me and said,
 "While dealing with a stranger, common courtesy you use,
 But the children you love, you seem to abuse.
 Go and look on the kitchen floor,
 You'll find some flowers there by the door.
 Those are the flowers he brought for you.
 He picked them himself: pink, yellow and blue.
 He stood very quietly not to spoil the surprise,
 and you never saw the tears that filled his little eyes."
 By this time, I felt very small,
 and now my tears began to fall.
 I quietly went and knelt by his bed;
 "Wake up, little one, wake up," I said. "
 Are these the flowers you picked for me?"
 He smiled, "I found 'em, out by the tree.
 I picked 'em because they're pretty like you.
 I knew you'd like 'em, especially the blue."
 I said, "Son, I'm very sorry for the way I acted today;
 I shouldn't have yelled at you that way."
 He said, "Oh, Mom, that's okay. I love you anyway."
 I said, "Son, I love you too,

and I do like the flowers, especially the blue."

Are you aware that if we died tomorrow, the company that we are working for would easily replace us in a matter of days. But the family we left behind will feel the loss for the rest of their lives. And come to think of it, we pour ourselves more into work than to our own family an unwise investment indeed, don't you think? So what is behind the story? Do you know what the word FAMILY means?

Happiness

It's not something to buy,
but it's definitely something to try.

It will make you feel good,
as only happiness could.

It may come from success,
or from what you possess.

Or it may come from the support of family and good friends on whom you can always depend.

But today I want to send some happiness your way in hopes that you have a brighter day!

FRIENDSHIP TREE

Trees start out as a seed
and grow with time.

We planted the seeds of friendship,
and our relationship took off from there.

As our friendship continues to grow,
I appreciate every ring on my tree.

For every ring symbolizes a special event, a laugh, or even a cry.

For you have made a difference in my life.

The events we weather in life make us who we are.

And just as a tree grows roots,
we grow roots.

We develop long lasting relationships.

I want to thank you for being my roots, my stable force.

I know I can count on you.

Box of Kisses

Some time ago, a man punished his 3-year-old daughter for wasting a roll of gold wrapping paper. Money was tight and he was furious when the child tried to decorate a box.

Nevertheless, the little girl brought the gift to her father the next morning and said, "This is for you, Daddy." He was embarrassed by his earlier overreaction, but his anger flared again when he found the box was empty.

He yelled at her, "Don't you know when you give someone a present, there's supposed to be something inside it? The little girl looked up at him with tears in her eyes and said, "Oh, Daddy, it's not empty, I blew kisses into the box. All for you, Daddy."

The father was crushed. He put his arms around his little girl, and he begged for her forgiveness.

An accident took the life of the child only a short time later and it is told that the man kept that gold box by his bed for many years and whenever he was discouraged, he would take out an imaginary kiss and remember the love of the child who had put it there.

In a very real sense, each of us as humans have been given a gold container filled with unconditional love and kisses from our children, friends, family or God. Even our pets!

There is no more precious possession anyone could hold than love.

Friends are like rainbows.
This I know.

Because each color stands alone,
yet blends together from a distance.

As friends, we each have our own identities,
but also have some similarities.

We have lots in common that we like to do,
and we have values and morals that are similar.

A rainbow makes you smile
just as good friends do too.

From a distance you can spot a beautiful rainbow,
just as you can spot good friends - us!

Send the rainbow to all your good friends! See if they send it back!

A father put his three year old daughter to bed, told her a story and listened to her prayers which she ended by saying

"God bless mommy, God bless daddy, God bless grandma, and goodbye grandpa."

The father said, "Why did you say good-bye grandpa?"

The little girl said "I don't know daddy, it just seemed like the thing to do."

The next day grandpa died. Father thought it was a strange coincidence.

A few months later the father put the girl to bed and listened to her prayers, which went like this:

"God bless mommy, God bless daddy and good-bye grandma.

Next day the grandmother died.

My gosh, thought the father, this kid is in contact with the other side. Several weeks later when the girl was going to bed the dad heard her say

"God bless mommy and good-bye daddy."

He practically went into shock. Couldn't sleep all night and got up at the crack of dawn to go to his office. He was nervous as a cat all day, had lunch sent in and watched the clock. He figured if he could get by until midnight he would be OK. He felt safe in the office, so instead of going home at the end of the day he stayed there, drinking coffee, looking at his watch and jumping at every sound. Finally midnight arrived, he breathed a sigh of relief and went home.

When he got home his wife said "I've never seen you work so late, what's the matter?"

He said "I don't want to talk about it, I've just spent the worst day of my life."

She said "You think you had a bad day, you'll never believe what happened to me. This morning the mailman dropped dead on our porch."

The Mailman Was the Father :)

A Wish

~Star light, star bright,
first star I see tonight

~A wish I make this very night,
a wish that all my friends sleep tight

~A wish that all good dreams come true

May God bless everything they do

~A wish that every day they'll wake to find a helping hand to take ~Someone to trust, someone to hold,

someone to truly call their "own"

~For days they cry, for days they pout
A wish for peace without a doubt

~For days our happiness will thrive
A prayer to God I am alive

~A wish of joy, and peace, and love, for these are all gifts from above

~For everything we do together
I pray that it will last forever

Before I went to bed tonight
I just had to let you know, that my love for you is strong and will always to continue to grow.

Before I went to bed tonight
I thought that you should hear
That every moment we spent together,
I hold each second dear.

Before I went to bed tonight
I had you on my mind.
I thought of sweet things you've done for me,
things from a heart that is so kind.

I hope this letter makes you happy,
if only for a while
But I'd gladly write a million
just to see you smile.

I know this sounds crazy,
just like I lost my head.
But I had to let you know,
before I went to bed.

You never know what might happen tomorrow. You never* know if tomorrow will even come, so send this to everyone special in your life because tomorrow might be too late! *

There was once a guy who suffered from cancer... a cancer that can't be treated. He was 18 years old and he could die anytime. All his life, he was stuck in his house being taken care of by his mother. He never went outside but he was sick of staying home and wanted to go out for once.

So he asked his mother and she gave him permission. He walked down his block and found a lot of stores. He passed a CD store and looked through the front door for a second as he walked. He stopped and went back to look into the store. He saw a young girl about his age and he knew it was love at first sight. He opened the door and walked in, not looking at anything else but her. He walked closer and closer until he was finally at the front desk where she sat.

She looked up and asked "Can I help you?" She smiled and he thought it was the most beautiful smile he has ever seen before and wanted to kiss her right there.

He said "Uh... Yeah... Umm... I would like to buy a CD." He picked one out and gave her money for it.

"Would you like me to wrap it for you?" she asked, smiling her cute smile again.

He nodded and she went to the back.

She came back with the wrapped CD and gave it to him. He took it and walked out of the store. He went home and from then on, he went to that store everyday and bought a CD, and she wrapped it for him. He took the CD home and put it in his closet. He was still too shy to ask her out and he really wanted to but he couldn't. His mother found out about this and told him to just ask her.

So the next day, he took all his courage and went to the store. He bought a CD like he did everyday and once again she went to the back of the store and came back with it wrapped. He took it and when she wasn't looking, he left his phone number on the desk and ran out...

!!!RRRRRING!!!

The mother picked up the phone and said, "Hello?"

It was the girl!!! She asked for the boy and the mother started to cry and said, "You don't know? He passed away yesterday..."

" The line was quiet except for the cries of the boy's mother. Later in the day. The mother went into the boy's room because she wanted to remember him. She thought she would start by looking at his clothes. So she opened the closet. She was face to face with piles and piles and piles of unopened CDs. She was surprised to find all those CDs and she picked one up and sat down on the bed and she started to open one.

Inside, there was a CD and as she took it out of the wrapper, out fell a piece of paper. The mother picked it up and started to read it.

It said: Hi... I think U R really cute. Do u wanna go out with me? Love, Jacelyn

The mother opened another CD...

Again there was a piece of paper. It said: Hi... I think U R really cute. Do u wanna go out with me? Love, Jacelyn

Love is... when you've had a huge fight but then decide to put aside your egos, hold hands and say, "I Love You"

May you always have an angel by your side
 Watching out for you in all the things you do
 Reminding you to keep believing in brighter days Finding ways for your wishes and dreams to take you to beautiful places

Giving you hope that is as certain as the sun
 Giving you the strength of serenity as your guide
 May you always have love and comfort and courage
 And may you always have an angel by your side
 May you always have an angel by your side
 Someone there to catch you if you fall

Encouraging your dreams Inspiring your happiness
 Holding your hand and helping you through it all
 In all of our days, our lives are always changing
 Tears come along as well as smiles

Along the roads you travel, may the miles be a thousand times more lovely than lonely
 May they give you the kind of gifts that never, ever end:
 someone wonderful to love and a dear friend in whom you can confide

May you have rainbows after every storm
 May you have hopes to keep you warm
 And may you always have an angel by your side

Shocking but True: Woman Discovers Chicken Head at McDonalds

November 29, 2000.

A customer at a McDonald's restaurant in Newport New, VA, got more than she bargained for when she received her order.

Katherine Ortega found a fried chicken's head in the box of chicken wings she ordered Wednesday.

Ortega said someone who wasn't looking closely could have easily mistaken the chicken's head for another piece of chicken, like the leg for a wing. The chicken's beak, the cone on top of its head and some feathers are visible.

A Friend Like You
Is Almost Too Good To Be True

The Laughter, the Tears
We have been through them over the Years

The Time We Have Shared
No One Could Compare

The Lessons We Have Learned
The Times We Have Been Burned

The Moments Together We Have Made
Those Will Never Fade

Our Friendship Can Only Grow Stronger
And The Years Hopefully Longer

I Just Wanted You To Know
How Much I Cherish YOU SO

A Hug

*A hug is a wonderful gift to share,
A way to show each other that we care;
There is so much a hug is able to do,
When you feel those arms holding you.*

*A hug is a place to feel safe and warm,
A comfort for a sad heart that is torn;
An expression of the love in our heart,
For ones who we wish, never to be apart.*

*A hug is a greeting when we meet to say hello,
Or to say goodbye when we have to go;
It can hold us up when life gets us down,
And makes us smile, instead of frown.*

*A hug can be given for no reason at all,
And given to those, both big and small;
We're never too old to feel the joy it brings,
As it is one of life's most pleasing things.*

*And for all of this beauty, a hug is free!
It costs nothing, yet means so much to me;
We should all hug another to show we care,
For to feel a warm hug, nothing can compare.*

One day, a poor boy who was selling goods from door to door to pay his way through school, found he had only one thin dime left, and he was hungry. He decided he would ask for a meal at the next house. However, he lost his nerve when a lovely young woman opened the door. Instead of a meal he asked for a drink of water.

She thought he looked hungry so brought him a large glass of milk. He drank it slowly, and then asked, "How much do I owe you?"

"You don't owe me anything," she replied. "Mother has taught us never to accept pay for a kindness."

He said..... "Then I thank you from my heart." As Howard Kelly left that house, he not only felt stronger physically, but his faith in God and man was strong also. He had been ready to give up and quit.

Year's later that young woman became critically ill. The local doctors were baffled. They finally sent her to the big city, where they called in specialists to study her rare disease. Dr. Howard Kelly was called in for the consultation. When he heard the name of the town she came from, a strange light filled his eyes. Immediately he rose and went down the hall of the hospital to her room.

Dressed in his doctor's gown he went in to see her. He recognized her at once. He went back to the consultation room determined to do his best to save her life. From that day he gave special attention to the case.

After a long struggle, the battle was won. Dr. Kelly requested the business office to pass the final bill to him for approval.

He looked at it, then wrote something on the edge and the bill was sent to her room. She feared to open it, for she was sure it would take the rest of her life to pay for it all. Finally she looked, and something caught her attention on the side of the bill.

She read these words.....

"Paid in full with one glass of milk"

(Signed)

Dr. Howard Kelly.

Tears of joy flooded her eyes as her happy heart prayed:
"Thank You, God, that Your love has spread abroad through human hearts and hands."

Now you have two choices.

You can send this page on and spread a positive message.
Or ignore it and pretend it never touched your heart.

Beautiful!

You are so beautiful to me.
A prettier face there couldn't be.

As innocent as a rose
but yet I know

You're knowledgeable in every way.
And if I need you, I know you'll stay.

You're beautiful inside and out.

You're exquisite, without a doubt!
